Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Save Our Shelter is a series focusing on the "rescue" of animal shelters and pets in need across America. Each week, hosts Rocky Kanaka and Rob North, with the help of local community members, transform rundown shelters into highly functioning pet showplaces in the hopes that a new facade will ultimately result in more adoptions and more lives saved. Produced for children 13-16 years old, Save Our Shelter will inform young people about the urgent need for pet adoption throughout the United States and how providing a clean and well-equipped home is essential to a pet's healthy lifestyle. Save Our Shelter will demonstrate to young people that the proper care of pets reflects our best human qualities. By expressing this ultimate example of kindness, teens will learn an important educational lesson that will stay with them for life.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	On Saturday 1/23/16, our sister station KYW-TV (a CBS network station) aired local special report blizzard coverage from 5am to 8pm. During the 7-9am hours, we then aired the CBS News program CBS This Morning Saturday on WPSG-TV in order to provide additional coverage of the storm from the national perspective. As a result, the two hours of normally scheduled CW Children's programming in the 7-9am hours were pre-empted on WPSG that day. This two hour block was then made good on Saturday 1/30/16 from 12pm to 2pm.
