Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	The core programming used to meet the additional children's programming requirement on the station's multicast channels consisted of episodes of the applicable programs that did not air within the previous seven days on the station's main program stream or on another of the station's free multicast program streams. Also of note, "America's Heartland" also now airs on 31.1, but on a 3 week delay to comply with children's programming rules.
