Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Animal trainer Brandon McMillan operates a training facility known as the Lucky Dog Ranch, where his mission is to rescue hard-to-love and untrained dogs and find them homes. The show focuses on exercising responsibility and on developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Life lessons are an integral part of the overarching theme of rescuing these animals from death and providing a second chance for life. Following McMillan's investigations into how to retrain these animals to make them welcome members in the homes of families is both educational and inspirational - encouraging this demographic to become sensitive to our own and others' behavior and teaching how we as individuals can make a difference. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	This filing amends the timely filed Form 398 filed on October 7, 2016. In fourth quarter 2016, the LAFF multicast network informed the station of a technical error regarding the E/I bug for programming that aired on 9/26/16. Upon learning of the technical issue, the station re-aired the programs from 9/26 missing the E/I bug in the fourth quarter of 2016. After due review of internal station records and documentation provided to us by program suppliers, the licensee hereby certified that the station fully complied with the FCC's commercial limits in children's programs, as specified at 47 C. F.R. section 73.670, with respect to all programs specifically designed for children ages twelve and under.
