Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	As a part of our service to the community in first quarter, 2017, KFDM-TV reserves a certain number of commercial availability for public service announcements. These spots are normally provided to us through National organizations, but we also sponsor/support a number of local events, on-air and through community outreach and partnerships. We support education and scholarships for local high school students through a program called KFDM Challenge, an academic game show between local high schools. The OUTSTANDING EDUCATOR AWARD, is sponsored by local business, and honors teachers nominated by students and parents on THE MORNING SHOW. News anchor Tiffany Murphy hosted our Reporter for the Day Sofia Babineaux. Together, they produced a newscast about Sofia, her interests and her projects. Sofia was the high bidder in a silent auction benefiting the Garth House, a local charity that works with law enforcement to provide a safe environment to get statements from abused children. KFDM participated in a Career Day at Ozen High School. Staff also acted as mentors to train students to interview and other job training. West Orange Stark second graders were the first to tour the new studio at KFDM and KBTW. They learned about different jobs at the television station and how to put together a newscast. In January, KFDM hosted a Town Hall Meeting dedicated to improving race relations in our community. We participated in Taste of the Triangle, a family friendly community fundraiser celebrating the foods of the Golden Triangle, and Mardi Gras. Chief Meteorologist Greg Bostwick was invited to speak to the Ozen High School Environmental Science classes about weather patterns and predictions. News Anchor Tiffany Murphy spent time with 7 year old heart survivor Delilah Rooney. She was the 2017 American Heart Association Honoree at the Southeast Texas Heart Ball. Delilah cut a PSA for us on Heart Health and the importance of attending the fundraiser. As partners of Lamar University, we encourage children to participate in sports and the arts by sponsoring programs at the university. Our Pay It Forward news segment honors local volunteers, including young people, who reach out to help our community. We also participate in the NAB Don't Drink and Drive roadblock, and run these PSAs throughout the holiday, and throughout the year. We also participating in the NAB Dont Drink and Drive roadblock, and run these PSAs throughout the year.
