Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Safari serves the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age. Emmy award-winning host and wildlife expert, John Ross, travels to the farthest reaches of the world to bring viewers face to face with some of the planet's most interesting animals. Safari offers a dynamic television experience for teens by exploring the fascinating world of wildlife, and at the same time, discovering what needs to be done to protect the animals and their habitats. Various age-appropriate global wildlife and ecology issues are introduced to the viewing audience with in-depth and thoughtful explanations.
