Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	La Abeja Maya is an entertaining preschool series that furthers the educational and informational needs of children by promoting the social and emotional goals of independence, empathy and diversity. The series also serves the cognitive and intellectual needs of children by teaching them about biodiversity and the importance of protecting nature. The main character, Maya, is a free spirit with a curious demeanor and fondness for discovery. With her eagerness for adventure, she lives free in the meadow, because the world is just too big and too fascinating to stay in the bee hive. Through Maya's open mindedness, children learn to foster their curiosity and to accept and respect others. On her way through the meadow, Maya and her many friends teach children valuable lessons about supporting the weak, learning from each other appreciating different perspectives on life.

Email Address	rmassey@newschannel10.com
Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Due to a technical problem stemming from Telemundo's network feed, episodes 223-224 and 101-102 of El Show de Chica, episodes 35-36 and 37-38 of La Abeja Maya and episodes 13A-13B and 14A-14B of Nina's World did not have the E/I bug for the entirety of the program on 10/7/17. The E/I bug was present for a portion of the programs. The issue was caught and corrected by KEYU, and KEYU, in conjunction with the Telemundo network, have taken ameliorative steps to avoid this error from occurring in the future. Also, due to scheduling issues from the Telemundo network, one episode of Nina's World was unable to be aired in a second home timeslot. The station is proactively working with Telemundo to ensure regularity in its provision of E/I programming, and the station will provide an average of E/I programming in Q1 2018 to ensure its six month average is sufficient.
