Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	The station lost power and went off the air on September 6, 2017, when Hurricane Irma hit Puerto Rico. On September 20 Hurricane Maria hit Puerto Rico, again knocking out electrical service as well as communications and other vital services for most of the island. A preliminary inspection of station transmitter site did not reveal any significant damage. However, a full assessment will not be possible until electricity is restored to the area. On October 4, 2017 station requested an application to be silent.
