Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	On each episode of Vacation Creation with Tommy Davidson and Andrea Feczko, our hosts guide one deserving family on amazing adventures as they experience a new destination together on their family vacation. As our featured family embarks on an interactive voyage filled with immersive learning opportunities, each episode brings us to diverse locations where our family and viewers discover unique cultural events, food, activities, and traditions. From discovering the wondrous glaciers of Alaska to learning from the Moko Jumbie of the Virgin Islands, viewers will witness the importance of spending time with family and friends as our featured families experience amazing adventures together, often learning more about each other and their own family history along the way. Teens will also learn the importance of resiliency during challenging times as many featured families share their stories of overcoming adversity, finding ways to bond and heal while sharing these once-in-a-lifetime experiences. This quarter, Tommy and Andrea make Amber and Tads wedding dreams come true when they help plan their big day, and show the families an amazing time as they travel on one of Alaskas most historic railroads, and pan for gold; Singer songwriter Nick Parker spends a lot of time on the road as a touring musician to support his family. When hes away, his son, Silas, misses him desperately and would do anything to have a few days for just him and his dad. Tommy and Andrea plan a much needed father/son cruise to Norway where Nick and Silas explore the Norwegian Sea on a super fast and fun boat ride, discover the famous fjords by kayak, and take part in an unforgettable onboard concert performed by Nick to his son; Chris Bowlick was granted a new lease on life after surviving a coma and major health scare. Still recovering, Chris, his wife and daughter are ready to create some new family memories on an Alaskan cruise. Tommy and Andrea show them a fun filled time on a helicopter ride to a glacier, visit bald eagles at the Raptor Sanctuary, and hold a surprise vow renewal finale; It has been 30 years since Kate left her profession as a singer, and now, she is ready to revisit the former life she once loved so much. Her good friends, Michael and Cesar, are proud of how she dedicates so much time saving and rescuing animals, so they nominate her for a trip to the Mediterranean, so she can explore the cultural history of one of the richest places on Earth. Tommy and Andrea have big plans for her with an historic lake and cave adventure, a sailing trip around the Greek Islands to discover its ancient past, and a surprise performance to remind her of old times; After surviving the sudden loss of her husband, Sandy Allen is in need of a trip around the Mediterranean to take her mind off things. Her daughter, Trudy, and hosts Tommy and Andrea, treat her to a tour around La Spezia, Italy, to learn all about the citys rich history. They explore the Rock of Gibraltar and meet the only wild monkeys in all of Europe. And Sandy fulfills a dream by learning how to waltz.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Station WZVN has a commitment to air public service announcements that specifically address issues facing young people. Examples of these PSAs include cyber bullying, internet safety, reckless driving, smoking, etc. WZVN participates in the STEM program, a collaboration between area businesses and school systems to promote the advancement of educational training and specialization in the areas of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics. WZVN anchors and reporters are also available for classroom visits throughout the school year. Additionally, numerous WZVN representatives are active throughout the community, some in high profile, decision rendering roles, serving on public service and charity organization committees and boards and or volunteering through nonprofit groups that specifically promote the well being of our area youth. Upon request classrooms and organizations can tour the station facilities gathering information on how the departments work and potential careers to consider in the industry. Once again, the station was a pacesetter company in the United Way drive in October, raising more than 41 thousand dollars in support of area agencies, many that specifically support the youth in the community including after school programs, mentoring, healthy meals for underprivileged children, financial support for education, protecting the rights of children, abuse counseling and more.
