Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During 1st Quarter 2018 WNUV aired and produced numerous PSAs directly relating to and serving the educational and informational needs of children. A weekly and monthly calendar is also produced for broadcast that promotes local events geared for families and children. WNUV held its annual black history campaign, Champions of Courage. Champions of Courage is a essay competition showcase for students to honor those who have shared the teachings of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. with young people. The competition challenged students to salute their personal heroes or mentors, positive role models who have inspired them to dream, to overcome, and to achieve. The competition was open to all Maryland students grades 6 through 12. WNUV held its annual BMore Healthy Expo on Saturday, March 3rd at the Baltimore Convention Center. The BMore Healthy Expo offered something for every age and interest. Families and children were entertained and engaged with a variety of health and wellness exhibits and activities. Best of all, The BMore Healthy Expo connected attendees with community resources to help them reach their health and wellness goals. WNUV regularly conducts tours of the stations for schools, boy scout troupes, colleges, and other educational groups seeking to learn about the operations of a television station.
