| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | WIMZIES HOUSE is a puppet based half hour TV series featuring Wimzie a little girl monster who lives with her parents, grandma and baby brother and her friends who come over the day. Each story is a complete dramatic episode and the stories feature the puppet characters in situations with themes that are important to the development of young children. Each show has songs which reinforce these themes. In addition to the main story, each show opens with one of the puppet characters introducing himself or herself in a brief video bio. Each show ends with two short segments. One is called Wimzies Reflections. These one minute pieces feature Wimzie in her pajamas and ready for bed with one of the grownup puppet characters. In the reflection Wimzie reviews something that happened during the day and is guided by the grown up to an understanding of that shows theme. The second short segment, which comes after the credits, is called Tips. In these 30 second segments the puppet children offer tips on the following issues nap time, talking without permission, hitting, no means no, inside and outside voices, excluding others, answering the phone, answering the door, eating too fast, crossing the street, dealing with strange animals, saying you are sorry, sneezing, brushing your teeth and washing your hands. |
