Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	KEPR ran PSA's during the quarter of interest to children covering topics such as drug abuse, child abuse, don't text and drive, etc. From the information provided in the PSAs, children and viewers may better identify problems and handle difficult situations as they arise. Also this quarter KEPR was the media sponsor for Safe Kids Saturday with hands on information and activities on water safety, poison prevention, substance abuse, early childhood development and more. The station also sponsored Kidz Dig Rigz, a two-day event in which kids of all ages can get up close and personal with all types of Rigz such as tractors, fire trucks, tanks and more. This quarter the station also participated in a benefit for Pediatric patients at the Regional Medical Center with some of the projects being teaching toys for comfort and education, a Hippo Car Seat for children with certain casts or splints, the Courageous Kids Program, swaddle sleep sacks, and bereavement support for children.
