Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This program features the rescue, rehabilitation and - in many instances - release back into the wild of ocean wildlife. Sea Rescue offers educational and entertaining television by demonstrating the welfare and medical benefits that rescue and rehabilitation programs provide animals. Viewers will also learn that there's a reciprocal benefit: rescued animals provide valuable insight into their biology and ecology. This information adds to the pool of knowledge necessary to conserve threatened and endangered species. Each week, Sea Rescue will leave its audience inspired by the real-life stories of the featured animals and rescuers and with a fuller understanding of the rich array of sea life with which we share our planet. This program aired on the primary digital channel.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Dog Town, USA is the story of the men and women who devote their lives to the healing and happiness of dogs - from every corner of the nation. Built on 33,000 acres of pristine land in Utah, Dog Town, USA is the nation's preeminent facility dedicated to finding safe homes for abandoned dogs. Each week Dog Town, USA's highly skilled staff and internationally renowned experts first create a safe sanctuary for dogs from around the world. Then medical professionals provide unique personal care to each dog, beginning the detailed process of rehabilitation in preparation for uniting each dog with a loving new family and home. This program is produced for ages 13-16 and will inspire young people to pursue their dreams while valuing the importance of dedicating oneself to the greater good of community and family. The series demonstrates the powerful interaction between humans and animals with a focus on our canine companions. Dog Town, USA educates and informs the audience about canine training techniques and creating healthy environments for dogs. Trained experts teach teen viewers how to be a responsible pet owner and maintain a safe and healthy lifestyle for both family and pet. Viewers will get to know - and care - about these dogs and the heroes who do whatever it takes to give them a second chance. This program airs on the tertiary digital channel only.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	As detailed above in the Digital Core Programming Section, and due coverage of the Former First Lady Barbara Bush's Funeral, the station's regular Saturday KidVid programming was preempted by breaking news for approximately 60 minutes on April 21, 2018. Programs impacted are Rock the Park and Vacation Creation. In addition to the information contained herein, WATE-TV participates in many other activities that directly impact children in the community. The station's anchors and reporters make numerous public appearances every month at community family and children's events. The WATE-TV Meteorology staff is particularly dedicated to speaking to students about weather forecasting and the science and the technology used. The station's meteorologists visit numerous classrooms, as well as guide tours through the storm center every month. WATE-TV also airs a weekly "Caring for our Kids" news segment which covers a wide range of health and educational topics relevant to parents and children.
