Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Much of the food Americans eat is produced by farmers and ranchers in the country's heartland, but many children don't know how it's produced. "America's Heartland" provides information about the people and processes responsible for the availability of food and fuel across the country and around the world. The show's reporters and producers tell stories in topics that include farm families, consumer issues, animal welfare and crop sustainability. Children will learn about the production of the food and fuel they consume. Some episodes also take the show abroad to countries such as Egypt and Taiwan, to show the impact American agriculture has on the global economy. (THIS PROGRAM AIRED ON THE MAIN DIGITAL STREAM 4.1)

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	The Licensee sponsors public appearances by the news anchors, meteorologists and San Antonio Living hosts to local schools to promote the importance of education and community service. In 4Q18 WOAI sponsored various on-air phone banks including a phone bank benefitting The Salvation Army, The San Antonio Food Bank and St Jude's Children's Hospital. The SA Food Bank initiative helped raise over 1.5 million pounds of food for the San Antonio community. The St Jude's phone bank culminated into an on-air Dream Home Giveaway on Nov 12th where all proceeds went to the children's hospital. And December 2018 marks the beginning of the MLK, Jr. Car Raffle initiative where the station will push to raise scholarship dollars for education.
