| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Wild America, which airs on our main digital channel, is the first and only wildlife and nature series to focus exclusively on the wild animals and wild lands of North America. Hosted by award-winning wildlife photographer and premier naturalist Marty Stouffer, the series features footage of mammals, birds, reptiles, fish and insects throughout the entire continent. Viewers take a guided journey to witness the vast wonders and infinite diversity of nature first hand. Series highlights include a magnificent menagerie of mice, moose, muskox, marmot, mollusk, mink, mockingbird, marten, manatee, and many more. Wild America is a series families can enjoy together. Parents and children will be delighted as they learn about nature. This program meets the definition of core programming because it educates and informs children on how all wild creatures, including man, are interconnected, through the animals own eye view, focusing on the reality of life in the wild, including birth, mating, predation and death. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Dragonfly TV, which airs on our main digital channel, is a weekly half hour science series featuring real kids doing real science and investigating science on their own. The show explores every kind of science, from looking at the mysteries of the body to the power of tornadoes, in a highly entertaining and engaging way for children. The series demonstrates practical applications of math and science with enjoyable hands-on projects. The show meets the definition of core programming because it educates and informs teenagers by promoting critical thinking and problem solving skills. Young viewers see other teens like themselves investigating, dreaming and doing! |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Think Big, which airs on our main digital channel, features top kid inventors who face off against each other in an Invent-Off to see who can come up with the most innovative and creative invention. Each episode is set in the Think Tank, a studio filled top to bottom with art supplies and construction materials. Two teams, each led by a Featured Inventor, brainstorm, choose materials and then sketch, design and build their own idea. Once completed, the competing inventions are presented to a judge. The best invention wins bragging rights and the coveted Genius Cup. In Think Big, kids acquire and showcase their skills in creativity, science, innovation, marketing, design and teamwork. Think Big is a kid-hosted entertaining series for young people. The program meets the definition of core programming because it follows some of the world's most innovative kids as they create and invent new toys, games, learning tools, websites and new modes of transportation. Some even start their own companies. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Missing, which airs on our main digital channel, furthers the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age with its programming content. The program features actual cases of missing persons, both juveniles and adults, from across the US. Assisted by local, state and federal law enforcement agencies, including the FBI, and missing person organizations such as The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, each episode includes interviews with friends, family and investigators involved with the case. The program visits the missing individual's last know whereabouts and provides viewers with all the relevant facts to increase public awareness in hopes of locating the missing person. This includes safety tips and real life stories and information to keep children safe. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Wimzie's House, which airs on our second digital channel 40.2, is an entertaining series for preschool kids and is a whimsical, educational puppet series about a five year old, half bird half dragon, who learns valuable life lessons. The series presents the delightful adventures of Wimzie, a playful five year old puppet monster; her baby brother Bo; her parents Graziella and Rouse; her lively 150 year old grandmother Yaya, and her adorable puppet monster friends. Together they learn skills of caring and sharing at Wimzie's House - a home daycare center unlike any other. Through unforgettable learning adventures and original toe-tapping sing along songs, young viewers are introduced to topics like friendship, generosity, jealousy, diversity and sibling rivalry, all from a preschooler's point of view. The award winning series was created by a renowned team of educational advisors and designed to nurture children's sense of identity, expand their relationships, stimulate their curiosity, and encourage self expression and self esteem. Wimzie's House helps children learn to express themselves and communicate with their families and friends. From Yaya's cozy kitchen, where the kids experiment with culinary projects, to the comfortable living room couch where they curl up for naptime, Wimzie's House provides the perfect place to explore both social and family issues that children face every day. |

| Describe theeducational andinformationalobjective of theprogram and how itmeets the definitionof CoreProgramming. | The Country Mouse and the City Mouse Adventures, which airs on our second digital channel 40.2, features country mouse Emily and her cousin from the big city, Alexander, as they visit each other and shows the many adventures they have together at the turn of the century. They always seem to run into trouble and bother with humans, other animals and exciting situations, but when they put their heads together, they can solve any problem and in the process, they learn about the places they visit and the things they see. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | The ever popular children's cartoon book series by author and illustrator Richard Scarry about Busytown comes to television and airs on our second digital channel 40.2. The program follows the everyday daily lives of the Busytown citizens, especially Huckle Cat and his friend Lowly Worm. And the story also brings to life neighbors such as Mr. Frumble, Bananas Gorilla, Sergeant Murphy, Wolfgang, Billy Dog, Hilda Hippo and Mr. Fix-it. Together they learn to solve every day problems that children today might and will face. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Wild America, which airs on our main digital channel, is the first and only wildlife and nature series to focus exclusively on the wild animals and wild lands of North America. Hosted by award-winning wildlife photographer and premier naturalist Marty Stouffer, the series features footage of mammals, birds, reptiles, fish and insects throughout the entire continent. Viewers take a guided journey to witness the vast wonders and infinite diversity of nature first hand. Series highlights include a magnificent menagerie of mice, moose, muskox, marmot, mollusk, mink, mockingbird, marten, manatee, and many more. Wild America is a series families can enjoy together. Parents and children will be delighted as they learn about nature. This program meets the definition of core programming because it educates and informs children on how all wild creatures, including man, are interconnected, through the animals own eye view, focusing on the reality of life in the wild, including birth, mating, predation and death. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Dragonfly TV, which airs on our main digital channel, is a weekly half hour science series featuring real kids doing real science and investigating science on their own. The show explores every kind of science, from looking at the mysteries of the body to the power of tornadoes, in a highly entertaining and engaging way for children. The series demonstrates practical applications of math and science with enjoyable hands-on projects. The show meets the definition of core programming because it educates and informs teenagers by promoting critical thinking and problem solving skills. Young viewers see other teens like themselves investigating, dreaming and doing! |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Think Big, which airs on our main digital channel, features top kid inventors who face off against each other in an Invent-Off to see who can come up with the most innovative and creative invention. Each episode is set in the Think Tank, a studio filled top to bottom with art supplies and construction materials. Two teams, each led by a Featured Inventor, brainstorm, choose materials and then sketch, design and build their own idea. Once completed, the competing inventions are presented to a judge. The best invention wins bragging rights and the coveted Genius Cup. In Think Big, kids acquire and showcase their skills in creativity, science, innovation, marketing, design and teamwork. Think Big is a kid-hosted entertaining series for young people. The program meets the definition of core programming because it follows some of the world's most innovative kids as they create and invent new toys, games, learning tools, websites and new modes of transportation. Some even start their own companies. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Missing, which airs on our main digital channel, furthers the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age with its programming content. The program features actual cases of missing persons, both juveniles and adults, from across the US. Assisted by local, state and federal law enforcement agencies, including the FBI, and missing person organizations such as The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, each episode includes interviews with friends, family and investigators involved with the case. The program visits the missing individual's last know whereabouts and provides viewers with all the relevant facts to increase public awareness in hopes of locating the missing person. This includes safety tips and real life stories and information to keep children safe. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Wimzie's House, which airs on our second digital channel 40.2, is an entertaining series for preschool kids and is a whimsical, educational puppet series about a five year old, half bird half dragon, who learns valuable life lessons. The series presents the delightful adventures of Wimzie, a playful five year old puppet monster; her baby brother Bo; her parents Graziella and Rouse; her lively 150 year old grandmother Yaya, and her adorable puppet monster friends. Together they learn skills of caring and sharing at Wimzie's House - a home daycare center unlike any other. Through unforgettable learning adventures and original toe-tapping sing along songs, young viewers are introduced to topics like friendship, generosity, jealousy, diversity and sibling rivalry, all from a preschooler's point of view. The award winning series was created by a renowned team of educational advisors and designed to nurture children's sense of identity, expand their relationships, stimulate their curiosity, and encourage self expression and self esteem. Wimzie's House helps children learn to express themselves and communicate with their families and friends. From Yaya's cozy kitchen, where the kids experiment with culinary projects, to the comfortable living room couch where they curl up for naptime, Wimzie's House provides the perfect place to explore both social and family issues that children face every day. |

| Describe theeducational andinformationalobjective of theprogram and how itmeets the definitionof CoreProgramming. | The Country Mouse and the City Mouse Adventures, which airs on our second digital channel 40.2, features country mouse Emily and her cousin from the big city, Alexander, as they visit each other and shows the many adventures they have together at the turn of the century. They always seem to run into trouble and bother with humans, other animals and exciting situations, but when they put their heads together, they can solve any problem and in the process, they learn about the paces they visit and the things they see.     |

| Describe theeducational andinformationalobjective of theprogram and how itmeets the definitionof CoreProgramming. | The ever popular children's cartoon book series by author and illustrator Richard Scarry about Busytown comes to television and airs on our second digital channel 40.2. The program follows the everyday daily lives of the Busytown citizens, especially Huckle Cat and his friend Lowly Worm. And the story also brings to life neighbors such as Mr. Frumble, Bananas Gorilla, Sergeant Murphy, Wolfgang, Billy Dog, Hilda Hippo and Mr. Fix-it. Together they learn to solve every day problems that children today might and will face. |
