Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Animal trainer Brandon McMillan operates a training facility known as the Lucky Dog Ranch, where his mission is to rescue hard-to-love and untrained dogs and find them homes. The show focuses on exercising responsibility and on developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Life lessons are an integral part of the overarching theme of rescuing these animals from death and providing a second chance for life. Following McMillan's investigations into how to retrain these animals to make them welcome members in the homes of families is both educational and inspirational - encouraging this demographic to become sensitive to our own and others' behavior and teaching how we as individuals can make a difference. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	WMDN ceased analog transmission February 2009. WMDN broadcast in digital only. WMDN D1 is affiliated with the CBS network. WMDN D2 was affiliated with the BOUNCE TV network and WMDN D3 is affiliated with the COZI TV network. Both BOUNCE TV network and COZI TV network provide WMDN D2 and D3 respectively, programming that meets the requirements and needs for Children's Core Programming set forth by the Federal Communications Commission. On January 1, 2019, WMDN D3 replaced the COZI network with the Me TV network. Beginning Sunday January 6, 2019, WMDN D3 began airing E/I programming furnished by the Me TV network. This report was prepared prior to the January 10, 2019 deadline, and it was ready for upload to the station's online public inspection file by that date, but because of the U.S. Government shutdown, the upload could not be completed by January 10, 2019.
