Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	AMERICAS HEARTLAND Much of the food Americans eat is produced by farmers and ranchers in the countrys heartland, but many children don't know how its produced. Americas Heartland provides information about the people and processes responsible for the availability of food and fuel across the country and around the world. The shows reporters and producers tell stories in topics that include farm families, consumer issues, animal welfare and crop sustainability. Children will learn about the production of the food and fuel they consume. Some episodes also take the show abroad to countries such as Egypt and Taiwan, to show the impact American agriculture has on the global economy. This program aired on the digital stream channel 4.1
