Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During 1st Quarter WZTV either participated or hosted the following community related events: WZTV teamed up with local National Weather Service for their annual Severe Weather Awareness Day. Severe Weather Awareness Day took place at Trevecca Nazarene University Boone Business Center, downtown Nashville, Tennessee. The free weather event had Booths, Kids Weather Learning Fun station activities, and staged panel weather discussion with local Nashville Television Meteorologists. Station meteorologists visited several surrounding local early education and secondary schools to talk about science within the Middle Tennessee area. Local news reporters participated in "Read Me Week" with the early education metropolitan school districts within the surrounding counties. WZTV aired several public service announcements that informed school aged children, teens, youth, and young adults about Homework Hotline, Girls in STEM, Gun Safety, Hunger Prevention, Child Car and Passenger Safety, Fatherhood, Foster Care, Texting and Driving Prevention, and School Violence Prevention. WZTV provided opportunities for local inner city programs, middle and high school broadcast students, Girls Scout, and Boys Scout, to visit and tour the station to learn about careers in broadcasting. Station news anchors and reports were tour guides for our in house station tours for elementary age students, middle school age students, junior high age students, high school age students, college and university age students. Several opportunities were provided for interns in the promotions, marketing, public affairs, and news departments.
