Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	"WNCF TRANSMITS ON RF CHANNEL 31 BUT IS KNOWN TO ITS VIEWING AUDIENCE AS CHANNEL 32. THE LATTER IS USED IN THIS REPORT TO IDENTIFY THE PROGRAMS AIRING ON EACH OF ITS MAIN AND MULTICAST STREAMS." "In accordance with the public notice issued on September 3, 2019, this report covers the period from July 1, 2019 through September 15, 2019. See DA 19-864. Although not required, WNCF is providing information in this report concerning the Core Programming it intends to air for the period from October 1, 2019 through December 31, 2019. See DA 19-864 (waiving requirement for stations to provide information concerning future children's programming)." WNCF airs two non-core programs each Saturday morning, and one on Sunday morning. As a rule no local commercials are placed in any E/I or non-core programming that airs on the station. Children from different elementary schools in the River Region gave the Pledge of Allegiance each morning during Alabama News Rising. WNCF'S News Team aired several stories that are of interest to parents, care-givers, and their children during the quarter. They included teacher-student safety, an end of summer reading party, a new Charter School, and a vote on three new Charter School conversions, Andalusia's Ident-A-Kid Security Service, the first day back to school, school board meetings, grants to provide teachers with more tools to use in the classroom, and a group of elementary school students in Demopolis that are members of a garden club that grows produce, then donates it to the city's food pantry to help the needy people in their community. WNCF will continue to provide the best E/I programming that is available for the youth in the River Region.
