Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Masha and the Bear (Masha y El Oso) is an animated series about the adventures of a three-year-old girl named Masha and her retired circus star friend the Bear. The relationship between Masha and the Bear is a metaphor of how a girl interacts with the world and how an adult can help with this difficult task. Precocious, silly, curious, creative and friendly with everyone she meets, this energetic girl can't seem to keep herself out of trouble. Bear, is a warm, fatherly figure that does his best to keep Masha from harm, often ending up the unintended victim of her misadventures! Through these amusing adventures children will develop cognitive and social-emotional skills. Masha and the Bear teaches children how to observe situations and to apply problem solving skills such as when a celebration does not go as planned, you make the best of it even when you encounter obstacles and working together as a team has better results. Young viewers will also learn right from wrong and the consequences of lying. Masha will be exposed to different situations some more complex than others, but there is always a lesson to be learned.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	On the station's second digital stream the UniMas Network preempted several E/I Core Regular Programs during the quarter for the broadcast of FIA Formula 1, car racing sporting event. All children's programs were made good and promotional efforts with the rescheduled times and dates were aired.
