Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Exploration is a half-hour live action television program designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children. In each episode, cameras follow the host, to the nearest and farthest corners of the world as he explores the land, the air, and the sea with intrepid curiosity. As an experienced science, journalists have the experience and credentials to introduce children to places, people, and things they may have never seen before. The mission of the program is to inspire children to preserve the innate human instinct to explore. Each episode is designed to reveal to children the world around them in a way that identifies positive role models and pro-social values.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	The station terminated analog operations on June 12, 2009. Accordingly, Questions 2, 3, and 4 refer to the station's primary digital stream and Questions 8, 9, and 10 refer to multicast programming. Questions 7(b) and 7(c) are no longer applicable. After due review of internal station records and documentation provided to us by program suppliers, the licensee hereby certifies as follows: (i) the only programs specifically designed for children ages twelve and under that the station broadcast this quarter are disclosed in this report and (ii) the licensee fully complied with the FCC's commercial limits in children's programs, as specified at 47 C.F.R. Section 73.670, with respect to these programs. During the first quarter of 2011, KFWD carried a standard definition 100% simulcast of its high definition primary programming stream as a multicast channel.
