Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Jack Hanna's Into the Wild" Shot from a number of photographic perspectives, the viewer is introduced to the biodiversity of the area, how animals are adapted to the environment, and the changes humans have imposed on the environment as well as the positive impact of local conservation efforts in the region. While Jack Hanna introduces the habitat and wildlife, regional guides are given the "expert" status and the viewer becomes engaged in the natural environment with the same enthusiasm as Jack's family. It is also important to note that in addition to the educational content of the program, Jack brings the affective aspect to wildlife education, engaging the emotional appeal of the wild animals and the conservation message to encourage the audience to take an active interest in preserving wildlife. Combining data-oriented scientific information with concern for the conservation status of wildlife and the environment enforces the educational value and impact of the program. "Jack Hanna's into the Wild" is broadcast on the stations secondary digital channel only.

See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	STATIONS PRIMARY DIGITAL CHANNEL - Summer of Creativity...Flight Dates: June 1-August 1, 2015. The goal of Summer of Creativity is to inspire and empower kids to change the world through their creativity. Disney   ABC Television Group (DATG), together with The Walt Disney Company, will unleash the creativity of kids through creative service-related projects and community based activities that will help them create the future they imagine. The campaign will leverage a corporate citizenship contribution to Youth Service America (YSA) that will provide $500 grants to kids across the country performing creative service projects in their local communities. DATG will conduct an on-air/online media campaign across its various platforms to find nominees and awardees. The goal of each grant is to inspire and engage youth to work with their families, friends, schools and communities to address critical needs in their local, national, and global communities. STATIONS PRIMARY &amp; SECONDARY DIGITAL CHANNELS - "Think It Up" Educational Initiative Fundraising Event...ABC, CBS, FOX and NBC will simultaneously broadcast the live "Think It Up" one-hour special on Friday, September 11, 2015. "Think It Up" seeks to inaugurate a new movement in support of the nation's students, teachers and schools, helping generate excitement about learning everywhere in America and building a sense of optimism about the changes underway in classrooms across the country. Because education is the cornerstone of our democracy and economy, "Think It Up" aims to renew a sense of promise for all of America's public school students. With new technologies, ingenuity and higher expectations, we are living today in the most dynamic era in learning and education since free public schools were established in the U.S. 150 years ago. "Think It Up" will invite public middle and high school students to work with their teachers to develop projects that draw on their passions and help pursue their educational goals. Posted on thinkitup.org, in collaboration with DonorsChoose.org, the student-powered, teacher-leg projects will be crowd-funded by citizen donors beginning September 2015. The projects will entail rigorous skill development that prepares American youth for post-high school life, helping pave the way for career success, regardless of the path.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Jack Hanna's into the Wild" Shot from a number of photographic perspectives, the viewer is introduced to the biodiversity of the area, how animals are adapted to the environment, and the changes humans have imposed on the environment as well as the positive impact of local conservation efforts in the region. While Jack Hanna introduces the habitat and wildlife, regional guides are given the "expert" status and the viewer becomes engaged in the natural environment with the same enthusiasm as Jack's family. It is also important to note that in addition to the educational content of the program, Jack brings the affective aspect to wildlife education, engaging the emotional appeal of the wild animals and the conservation message to encourage the audience to take an active interest in preserving wildlife. Combining data-oriented scientific information with concern for the conservation status of wildlife and the environment enforces the educational value and impact of the program. To be broadcast on the stations secondary digital channel only.

"Wild About Animals" is a half-hour animal E/I magazine series that educates and informs children, specifically in the target age group, by bringing them entertaining and interesting stories about the world's most fascinating animals. Each episode consists of four different stories designed to teach children about both exotic and unique animals, as well as to educate them further about animals they see every day. To be broadcast on the stations secondary digital channel only.
