Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	In addition to the regular programming, during the 1st quarter of 2015, WGGB continues to air various PSA's that are aimed at young people. Here are a few examples: Several PSA's dealing with the benefits of support to help kids read, encourages children's oral health, the importance of adoption, promoting an anti-bullying gala hosted by one of our anchors, promoting helping people with learning disabilities, hosting the Jimmy Fund local event and info to help Hispanic education. We also continue to air segments called "Honor Roll" which highlights all the good that is going on in our local schools from a unique program, to a fund-raiser, to a class or student excelling in their classroom. Meteorologists continue to visit local schools to discuss weather through the end of the school year. And give tours to children explaining weather and broadcasting.
