Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	AIRING ON MAIN DIGITAL CHANNEL: The half-hour weekly series, Sea Rescue, features the rescue, rehabilitation and - in many instances - release back into the wild of ocean wildlife. Produced for ages 13-16, Sea Rescue offers educational and entertaining television by demonstrating the welfare and medical benefits that rescue and rehabilitation programs provide animals. Viewers will also learn that there's a reciprocal benefit: rescued animals provide valuable insight into their biology and ecology. This information adds to the pool of knowledge necessary to conserve threatened and endangered species. Each week, Sea Rescue will leave its audience inspired by the real-life stories of the featured animals and rescuers and with a fuller understanding of the rich array of sea life with which we share our planet.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	AIRING ON MAIN DIGITAL CHANNEL: Young, enthusiastic and passionate about food, Claire Thomas is the 22 year old host who opens viewers' eyes to how everyday life can inspire culinary creations in Food for Thought. Each weekly-half hour, produced for ages 13-16, informs and educates teens about the power of food as a tool for exploring new places, meeting new people and learning about different cultures. Claire serves as a role model for 13-16 year old viewers by showing her passion for her family, life, and healthy living by sharing stories in the kitchen. Creative inspiration can come from any place at any time - sometimes from family, sometimes from friends, or even from bloggers needing her help. No matter how exotic or local the location, she's always in search of new tastes and places to explore. Based on her unique perspective gathered throughout each episode, Claire will teach the audience how to prepare the "inspired" dish while promoting a healthy attitude towards food and life.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	AIRING ON DIGITAL MULTI-CAST "thisTV Pittsburgh" CHANNEL: Come spend a "day in the life" with the monsters at Wimzie's house and you'll never go home. It's the magical kind of daycare that leads to delightful adventures for the pre-school child. All of the characters are wild and wooly on the outside - but definitely human on the inside. After spending a half-hour in this very special home away from home, no one will leave the world of Wimzie unchanged. It is the world where the real and the imaginary come together, where self esteem is the order of the day, where the emotions and the relationships of today's preschoolers, who are growing up to be ten in the year 2000, are on the top of the list of story material. Five year-old Wimzie and her mother Graziella, an airline pilot, live in Yaya's house as does Russo, Yaya's best friend - even if Yaya is at least one hundred and fifty years old (and counting) and Russo is much more than one hundred years her younger. Graziella is more than ecstatic to have found a warm and comfortable home as well as a loving environment for her daughter, Wimzie, while she is off on her somewhat unorthodox work schedule flying around the world. It is within this setting that we meet Jonas, Archibald, LouLou, Horace, and Azuline as they work out the relationships that grow out of being together every day, of growing up a bit every day. They learn not only about themselves but also about the world outside the door: music, nature, art and fun are woven with a touch of humor throughout a storyline solidly crafted on socio-affective objectives. Music, songs, the art of discovery. Rhymes, magic, the sharing of secrets with friends. Storytime, word games, the acceptance of "your way". This is what Wimzie brings into the viewers' home. A daycare full of little monsters, - what could be more real? Conflict, difficulty, resolution, triumph. Laughter, tears, anger and joy. Wimzie is a world of enchantment.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	1) On Sunday 1/20, Recipe Rehab airing on our main digital channel was joined-in-progress at 12:01pm due to an ABC News Special Report on the official swearing-in ceremony at The White House of Barack Obama as President of the United States. 2) On Saturday and Sunday March 23 and 24, due to a This-TV network technical issue, the E/I logo failed to display during all E/I programming on the station's This-TV multicast channel. Each This-TV E/I program that was affected on March 23 and 24 was re-aired with the E/I logo on March 29, March 30 and March 31 in a "second home" time slot and such re-airings were promoted and publicized in advance. For simplicity, we are not reporting this situation as a "preemption"/rescheduling situation in Item 10. This report was originally timely filed on April 8, 2013, and it is being amended and refiled on May 14, 2013, in order to report the following: the station has discovered that, on January 19, 2013, the "E/I" logo did not appear in several core programs on the station's multicast stream carrying ThisTV programming. All core programs that aired on Saturday, January 19 were affected except for "Green Screen Adventures." The ThisTV network has been unable to confirm that the E/I logo was missing from the programs; however, the station's own investigation suggests that the E/I logo was missing from those programs on that date.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	AIRING ON DIGITAL MULTI-CAST "thisTV Pittsburgh" CHANNEL: Come spend a "day in the life" with the monsters at Wimzie's house and you'll never go home. It's the magical kind of daycare that leads to delightful adventures for the pre-school child. All of the characters are wild and wooly on the outside - but definitely human on the inside. After spending a half-hour in this very special home away from home, no one will leave the world of Wimzie unchanged. It is the world where the real and the imaginary come together, where self esteem is the order of the day, where the emotions and the relationships of today's preschoolers, who are growing up to be ten in the year 2000, are on the top of the list of story material. Five year-old Wimzie and her mother Graziella, an airline pilot, live in Yaya's house as does Russo, Yaya's best friend - even if Yaya is at least one hundred and fifty years old (and counting) and Russo is much more than one hundred years her younger. Graziella is more than ecstatic to have found a warm and comfortable home as well as a loving environment for her daughter, Wimzie, while she is off on her somewhat unorthodox work schedule flying around the world. It is within this setting that we meet Jonas, Archibald, LouLou, Horace, and Azuline as they work out the relationships that grow out of being together every day, of growing up a bit every day. They learn not only about themselves but also about the world outside the door: music, nature, art and fun are woven with a touch of humor throughout a storyline solidly crafted on socio-affective objectives. Music, songs, the art of discovery. Rhymes, magic, the sharing of secrets with friends. Storytime, word games, the acceptance of "your way". This is what Wimzie brings into the viewers' home. A daycare full of little monsters, - what could be more real? Conflict, difficulty, resolution, triumph. Laughter, tears, anger and joy. Wimzie is a world of enchantment.
