Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Come spend a 'day in the life' with the monsters at Wimzie's house and you'll never want to go home. It's the magical kind of daycare that leads to delightful adventures for the pre-school child. All of the characters are wild and wooly on the outside - but definitely human on the inside.After spending a half hour in this very special home away from home, no one will leave the world of Wimzie unchanged. It is the world where the real and the imaginary come together, where self esteem is the order of the day, where the emotions and the relationships of today's preschoolers, who are growing up to be ten in the year 2000, are on the top of the list of story material. Five year old Wimzie and her mother Graziella, an airline pilot, live in Yaya's house as does Rousso, Yaya's best friend - even if Yaya is at least one hundred years and fifty years old (and counting) and Russo is much more than a hundred years her younger. Graziella is more than ecstatic to have found a warm and comfortable home as well as a loving environment for her daughter, Wimzie, while she is off on her somewhat unorthodox work schedule flying around the world. It is within this setting that we meet Jonas, Archibald, Loulou, Horace, and Azuline as they work out the relationships that grow out of being together every day, of growing up just a little bit every day. They learn not only about themselves but also about the world outside the door: music, nature, art and fun are woven with a touch of humour throughout a storyline solidly crafted on socio-affective objectives. Music, songs, the art of discovery. Rhymes, magic, the sharing of secrets with friends. Storytime, word games, the acceptance of "your" way. This is what Wimzie brings into the viewers' home. A daycare full of little monsters - what could be more real? Conflict, difficulty, resolution, triumph. Laughter, tears, anger and joy. Wimzie is a world of enchantment.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Due to a Government-wide lapse in funding, FCC closure made it impossible to file our 3Q2013 report within the first 10 days of October. Upon the FCC reopening, our 3Q2013 FCC report was filed within the FCC's extended deadline. As to sections 7(b) and (c) Statement of Explanation, WMBB ceased analog transmission on February 17, 2009, and broadcast digital only during Third Quarter 2013. WMBB anchors conducted station tours for area groups and organizations within the community to share news and weather production information, and to provide information on careers within the broadcast industry. To promote literacy, various WMBB on-air personalities visited local schools to read to students. To encourage kids to make education a priority and be active, students who have a 3.0 or higher GPA, are a High School Senior, and a major contributor on their Varsity team may be nominated for "Scholar Athlete of the Week." Scholar Athlete of the Week airs on Sunday nights on News 13 at Ten. WMBB is a Crimestoppers partner and was instrumental in creating "Campus Crimestoppers," a program that includes placement of anti-crime/anti-bullying awareness visuals on area school buses. The program also provides students and school staff with information on anonymously reporting criminal and/or suspicious activity.
