Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During this past quarter, WPMY telecast numerous public service announcements aimed at children 16 years of age and under. WPMY continued its PSA campaign for children during 2nd Quarter with more than 50 PSAs ranging from Literacy, Family, Energy Efficiency, Donating Blood, Nutrition education, Fire prevention, Special Olympics, Arts, Breast Cancer Awareness, Adoption, Big Brothers and Sisters, and Drug Free America. An average of 2 minutes of PSA's per day aired during kids programming. WPMY continues to maintain a community calendar on its website highlighting various community events and organizations. WPMY broadcast programs in standard program lengths (a minimum of three hours weekly), which provides educational informational needs of children. We believe that these programs have unlimited value.
