Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Eco Company focuses on the environment and preservation of the earth's resources. Eco Company explores all aspects of being "green" and understanding how our actions impact the world. The E-Co team finds out about global warming by asking questions to discover the truths and myths of the global warming issue. They learn about alternative energies by visiting wind farms and solar installations and discovering new energy technologies currently under development. They learn more about recycling, conservation and organics. The ETeam profiles teens and school organizations who have taken it upon themselves to make a difference, young entrepreneurs who are taking their passion for green to develop ideas, and new products for a sustainable future. Most importantly, each story and each feature is reported by teens and told from their perspective. Additionally each week the show will provide practical tips that teens, and people of all ages can use in their daily lives. Each episode employs Eco Company "members" or hosts who conduct interviews of peers and adults, and experience first hand the demonstration and explanation of the topic. Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	WSTR strives to assist the community by airing a variety of programs in standard program lengths (a minimum of three hours weekly), which provides both the educational and informational needs of children. We believe these programs have unlimited value. During the past quarter, WSTR telecast numerous public service announcements aimed at children 16 years of age and under. We also air on a regular basis PSAs provided to use by the Ad Council and Drug Free America, which are geared toward children. Our PSAs are designed for a general audience, but also serve children 16 years of age and under. WSTR/Star64 also airs a local community affairs program, "Cincinnati Issues" every Sunday at 6:30am. This program features local community leaders discussing a variety of topics that affect our viewers, including children 16 years of age and under.
