Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During the first quarter of 2015, WACH coordinated with the South Carolina Department of Social Services (SCDSS) on "Waiting Child WACH", produced by our news department. Waiting Child WACH features a child who is waiting to be adopted by a family. Our "Teens to WACH" segment is coordinated with High School Guidance Counselors who nominate local teens that are drug free, academically gifted, and have worked to ensure they have bright futures. Each month, WACH team chooses an outstanding teen from the nomination list and announces the winner. During the first quarter, WACH also provided station tours for cub scouts, day camps, church youth groups, colleges, and journalism students. The Richland County Sheriff's Department SRO Program invited Anchor Fraendy Clervaud to be the guest speaker at their D.A.R. E. Graduation on January 30, 2015. On March 12, 2015, news team member Tara Petit was presented a Letter of Appreciation for her hard work and professionalism during a ride along with the Midlands Gang Task Force. WACH's Janet Parker spoke to college students about the Journalism profession and read books at Palmetto Children's Hospital. Bethel Hanberry Elementary School celebrated Women's History Month, and Janet Parker was invited to be a special guest on the panel of speakers.
