Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	After due review of internal station records and documentation provided to us by program suppliers, the licensee hereby certifies that the station fully complied with the FCC's commercial limits in children's programs, as specified at 47 C.F.R. Section 73.670, with respect to all programs specifically designed for children ages twelve and under. For this reporting period, licensee did not air applicable children's programming that would fall under this category. The station terminated analog operations on June 12, 2009. Responses in this form to questions regarding the analog signal thus refer to the station's primary digital signal only after that date. KTVI launched a new multicast channel - "Antenna TV" - on Monday, March 7, 2011. As a result, the E/I information listed in Section 10 covers a 25-day period in this quarter.

Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	9 years to 14 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"This Week in Baseball" highlights the pro-social on-and-off the field activities of MLB's leading players and coaches. Working with the National Assn. for Sport and Physical Education, "This Week in Baseball" seeks to provide today's youth with educational messages that can have an impact on development of positive lifestyle behaviors. The program portrays the positive outcomes and results from dedication, hard work, self-discipline, teamwork, practice and personal responsibilities. This Week in Baseball airs immediately before the Fox Network's coverage of Major League Baseball. Based on the FCC's staff advice, each episode is deemed to have been broadcast at its "regularly scheduled" time because the program aired in times that viewers were accustomed to seeing the program and, therefore, remained consistent with the audience's expectations. The schedule changes were reported to listing services.
