Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The Outdoorsman has evolved into the nation's largest syndicated adventure series. The series format includes an FCC FRIENDLY (EI) educational blend of world class adventures in domestic and international locations. Environmental and conservation issues, teaching kids & people of all ages about wildlife, hunting, fishing, ethics and respect for nature and a celebration of the sporting lifestyle are important aspects of the format. The series is hosted by Outdoorsman International founder Buck McNeely. An international adventurer, dedicated conservationist and game management proponent, Buck promotes the enjoyment of the great outdoors for kids of all ages. This series gives young people motivation and inspiration to enjoy the great outdoors and follow their dreams of travel, adventure and exploration. It also aims to teach kids the key role sportsmen & women play in game management & habitat programs.

Describe the educational and nformational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Fat Albert is an animated series created, produced and hosted by educator and comedian Bill Cosby, who also lent his voice to a number of characters, including Fat Albert himself. The show, based on Cosby's remembrances of his childhood gang, centered on Albert (known for his catchprase "Hey hey hey!") and his friends. Every episode has an educational lesson emphasized by Cosby's live-action segments, and the gang would usually gather in their North Philadelphia junkyard to play a rock song on their cobbled-together instruments at the end of the show. Fat Albert qualifies as a core program because every episode teaches a life lesson that appeals to kids aged 7-12, the implied ages of the characters on the show. It aslo reflects Bill Cosby's strong educational focus that emphasizes taking responsibility for one's actions and being accountable for them.

Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	13 years to 16 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. Wild America, which airs on our main digital channel, is the first and only wildlife and nature series to focus exclusively on the wild animals and wild lands of North America. Hosted by award-winning wildlife photographer and premier naturalist Marty Stouffer, the series features footage of mammals, birds, reptiles, fish and insects throughout the entire continent. Viewers take a guided journey to witness the vast wonders and infinite diversity of nature first hand. Series highlights include a magnificent menagerie of mice, moose, muskox, marmot, molluse, mink, mockingbird, marten, manatee, and many many more. Wild America is a series families can enjoy together. Parents and children will be delighted as they learn about nature. This program meets the definition of core programming because it educates and informs children on how all wild creatures, including man, are inter-connected, through the animals own eyeview, focusing on the reality of life in the wild, including birth, mating, predation and death.

Age of Target Child Audience from	2 years to 6 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Each episode of this weekly half-hour show for young children, which airs on our second digital channel, is developed with guidance from two highly respected educators. Each show features the main character, Gina D, as a fun loving and positive role model who connects with her 2-6 year old audience with the same familiarity that children associate with their own mother. During the show, children learn skills and concepts in ways that are easily absorbed by a small child's intellect. Gina D's combination of bright colors and shapes, live action and fanciful puppetry will engage children in a world of educational fun. The show is a valuable vehicle in the development of the self-image, social, math, and reading skills in young children. Plus, children are not only educated, but entertained by a cast of whimsical characters which include Simon Wannabe, Mister Pockets, Miss Muffin, Pierre D'Artist, TV Ted and Doggy Brown. This program meets the definition of core programming because it educates and informs young children at their age level.

Program Title	Fat Albert and the Cosby Kids
Origination	Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Monday - Friday @ 3pm
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	65
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	7 years to 12 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Fat Albert is an animated series created, produced and hosted by educator and comedian Bill Cosby, who also lent his voice to a number of characters, including Fat Albert himself. The show, based on Cosby's remembrances of his childhood gang, centered on Albert (known for his catchprase "Hey hey hey!") and his friends. Every episode has an educational lesson emphasized by Cosby's live-action segments, and the gang would usually gather in their North Philadelphia junkyard to play a rock song on their cobbled-together instruments at the end of the show. Fat Albert qualifies as a core program because every episode teaches a life lesson that appeals to kids aged 7-12, the implied ages of the characters on the show. It aslo reflects Bill Cosby's strong educational focus that emphasizes taking responsibility for one's actions and being accountable for them.
