Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Animal Atlas is an entertaining and educational half-hour program that explores the world of animal wildlife, promoting a better understanding of how various animal species live and what they need to survive. With an entertaining narrative, the series combines focused examinations of certain topics such as Animal Appetites (which explores the various diets of animals along with information about how animals catch and eat their food, how diets determine their lifestyle, etc.), Animal Antics, (a hilarious look at the crazy physical antics and talents of certain species), Animal Babies (an intimate look at babies of various species, how they are born, how they are raised and the difficulties and delights of growing up), along with shows which focus solely on certain animals such as elephants, bears, and monkeys. In these shows a thorough and entertaining exploration of the specific animal takes the viewer into that animal world as we see where it lives, how it eats, how it plays, how the family unit operates, and what threatens and supports its survival. Animal Atlas also promotes responsibility toward wildlife issues by educating the viewer about endangered species and wildlife habits, as well as informing viewers how to support wildlife conservation.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Because station WTOC-TV ceased analog operations and converted to digital-only operations prior to the start of the reporting period, questions 7(b) and 7(c) are no longer applicable. On the 1st Quarter 2012 398, there was a typo on Program 4. It should of said 2 preemptions, not 13 which was the amount the show aired. On 4/28, Busytown Mysteries I and II was preempted due to the Standup for America parade and moved to it's second home at 9am. On 5/12, Busytown Mysteries I and II was preempted due to the Glennville Onion Parade and moved to it's second home at 9am. On 6/23, Busytown Mysteries I and II was preempted due to the Hampton Watermelon Festival Parade and moved to it's second home at 9am. Listing services were notified and also mentioned during the newscasts. Also, we will be moving our second home to 8am to better accomodate upcoming preemptions that may and will occur.

Program Title	Doodlebops I on WTOC 11.1
Origination	Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Saturdays 7am
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	3 years to 6 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	By means of fantasy, fun, music and rhyme, the Doodlebops teach children about their world and gives them the vital motivation and tools to explore it. Each episode will feature a live-action child who writes to the Doodles for help or advice with a problem. This child then gets and enters an animated world of the Doodlenet where they can hop on the magical tour bus and travel anywhere their imaginations can take them. Each episode will reinforce a lesson through a musical interlude or song that encapsulates the educational objective or message. Each of the children's programs has been designed with the significant purpose of serving the educational and informational needs of children and can be cited toward fulfilling the FCC's three-hour-a-week core programming requirement that became effective September 1, 1997. The COOKIE JAR TV programs will be formatted so that they will be in compliance with the commercialization limit established by Congress in the children's television act of 1990 of no more than ten-and-a-half minutes of commercial time per weekend clock hour and no more than five-minutes-fifteen-seconds per half-hour of children's programming.

Origination	Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Saturdays 7am
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	13 years to 16 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Animal Atlas is an entertaining and educational half-hour program that explores the world of animal wildlife, promoting a better understanding of how various animal species live and what they need to survive. With an entertaining narrative, the series combines focused examinations of certain topics such as Animal Appetites (which explores the various diets of animals along with information about how animals catch and eat their food, how diets determine their lifestyle, etc.), Animal Antics, (a hilarious look at the crazy physical antics and talents of certain species), Animal Babies (an intimate look at babies of various species, how they are born, how they are raised and the difficulties and delights of growing up), along with shows which focus solely on certain animals such as elephants, bears, and monkeys. In these shows a thorough and entertaining exploration of the specific animal takes the viewer into that animal world as we see where it lives, how it eats, how it plays, how the family unit operates, and what threatens and supports its survival. Animal Atlas also promotes responsibility toward wildlife issues by educating the viewer about endangered species and wildlife habits, as well as informing viewers how to support wildlife conservation.
