Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Horseland is an animated series about five girls and two boys who live in spectacular countryside that houses a farm called Horseland. Each of these main characters has a special horse whose personality is similar to its owner's. Horseland and its unique approach of integrating the personality of the main characters and animals serve to reinforce prosocial themes. Horseland is also a "coming of age" series in which viewers experience and learn from the social interactions, hopes, dreams, and even fears of this group of culturally diverse adolescents. From this background, the experiences of sharing, caring, compromise, friendship, respect, and competition emerge to provide the young viewers with social and emotional guidelines for better understanding many of the life-lessons they need to learn as they grow and develop. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules. KFSM did not air Horseland on 08/11 due to a CBS News Special Report.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	After due review of internal station records and documentation provided to us by program suppliers, the licensee hereby certifies as follows: (i) the only programs specifically designed for children ages twelve and under that the station broadcast this quarter are disclosed in this report and (ii) the licensee fully complied with the FCC's commercial limits in children's programs, as specified at 47 C.F.R. Section 73.670, with respect to these programs. The station terminated analog operations on June 12, 2009. Questions 7(b) and 7(c) are no longer applicable. Below is a list of other activities and special projects KFSM-TV is involved in; PSAs concerning kids that ran on KFSM-TV; a list of schools and other organizations visited by KFSM-TV employees; and some of the news stories that were related to children and education that aired during our local newscasts in the 3rd quarter of 2012. KFSM-TV is involved in several special projects including: 5NEWS In School - A program where KFSM invites area schools to sign up through our website to have KFSM employees visit their school and talk to students about a career in broadcasting, weather, severe weather safety, etc. KFSM participates in the Partners in Education (PIE) program which establishes mutually beneficial relationships between businesses and schools. Over 100 local companies and businesses partner with area schools to mentor, provide services, equipment or whatever may assist in the educational goals of a particular school. KFSM is a Partner in Education to Darby Jr. High School in Fort Smith. KFSM donates used printer toner cartridges to Darby and they use the money to purchase equipment for the school (such as copiers, toner cartridges, etc.) and for educational field trips. We also provide emcees and judges for various school activities throughout the year. Backpack Buddies - KFSM teams up with Community Services Clearinghouse to bring balanced meals to local kids through the Backpack Buddies program. The Clearinghouse supplies area residents with Meals for Kids food list so they can purchase individually sized packages of the suggested foods and donate them to the Clearinghouse who then provides the items to area kids who otherwise would not have enough to eat. KFSM helps Community Services Clearinghouse with various projects throughout the year. The following is a list of some of our Public Service Announcements that ran during the 3rd quarter of 2012. Adoption, Alyse-Boat Safe, Alyse-Boat Safe, Autism Awareness, Unplanned Pregnancy, ARC Adrian, ARC Hages, Boys Town, Children's Health, GED, Girl Scouts, March of Dimes, Pool Safety, Runaway Switchboard, Safeguard RX, Text and Drive. VISITS TO SCHOOLS OR OTHER ORGANIZATIONS by KFSM-TV EMPLOYEES: 07/23/2012 - Anchor Daren Bobb spoke to a government class at the University of Arkansas Fort Smith. 08/01/2012 - A student from Clarksville High School was a job shadow with Meteorologist Joe Pennington. 08/03/2012 - KFSM was a sponsor of Stuff the Bus, a program sponsored by the United Way to help collect school supplies for local children in our community. 08/07/2012 - A job shadow from Greenwood High School spent time with Anchor Daren Bobb to learn more about television and what courses she needed to take in college. 08/08/2012 - Meteorologist Joe Pennington hosted a science class of approximately 30 students from Carl Albert State College in the weather center. Joe explained the forecast process and answered questions about meteorology and working in television. 08/16/2012 - Mary Beth Oliver, Account Executive, attended Taste of Crawford County in Van Buren. The annual event is a fundraiser for Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Crawford County and the Boys and Girls Club of Van Buren and Alma. 08/19/2012 - Daren Bobb, Anchor, gave a speech at the University of Arkansas Fort Smith student convocation. 08/27/2012 - Anchor Mitch Roberts visited Elm Tree Elementary School in Bentonvil

Children can follow classic characters such as Huckle, Sally and Lowly as they scour Busytown on fun-filled adventures looking for answers to life's puzzles. Each episode focuses on fostering viewers' problem solving abilities, as the characters use their skills of observation to collect facts, draw inferences from those facts, and ultimately reach conclusions. Each episode also develops vocabulary through words and concepts that are part of the episode's overall theme. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.
