Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Ellen takes children on amazing adventures all over the universe without their ever having to leave home. Ellen's imagination keeps kids engaged! Her fantasy world is exciting and constantly changing just like the real-life experience of a young child. Ellen plays the same way kids play in real life. Kids relate to Ellen and see themselves reflected in her. Ellen Acres is visually different from other pre-school shows. Its style is influenced by anime, retro graphics and illustrated children's books. The combination of textures, patterns and painterly and illustrative elements creates depth and makes the show interesting to both kids and adults.
