Children's PSA aired Q1 2015 -"Manners" - Children's Oral Health The mouth is the gateway to a person's overall health, and an unhealthy mouth can be associated with obesity, diabetes and heart disease. Despite high rates of dental decay in children, research shows that many parents lack information about oral health. Furthermore, according to an Ad Council survey, 75% of parents report that their child sometimes or frequently forgets to brush their teeth. This campaign aims to improve children's oral health by educating parents about the importance of a healthy mouth and motivating them to modify their children's behaviors through simple, low-cost, preventative strategies. The PSAs communicate the importance of brushing for two minutes, twice a day to prevent tooth pain later. Parents are directed to 2min2x.org, where they can find fun 2-minute videos that kids can watch while brushing. Program Title	LUCKY DOG
Origination	Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Saturday 8:00am
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	13 years to 16 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Animal trainer Brandon McMillan operates a training facility known as the Lucky Dog Ranch, where his mission is to rescue hard-to-love and untrained dogs and find them homes. The show focuses on exercising responsibility and on developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Life lessons are an integral part of the overarching theme of rescuing these animals from death and providing a second chance for life. Following McMillan's investigations into how to retrain these animals to make them welcome members in the homes of families is both educational and inspirational - encouraging this demographic to become sensitive to our own and others' behavior and teaching how we as individuals can make a difference. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.
