Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	About a hundred years ago in a small French village of Chavanon, an eight-year-old boy named Remi lived happily with his family even though they were very poor. One day, his father, Jerome, reveals to Remi that he was actually found abandoned as a baby and is not his real son. Now, the hard and painful life the family is living leaves Jerome no choice but to sell Remi to old Vitalis, the leader of an ambulant troupe of entertainers. Frightened at first, Remi soon finds the old man very friendly, though quite strict, and the life of an entertainer, traveling together with Capi. Dolce, Zerbino, the three dogs and Joli Coeur, the monkey, remarkably interesting. All along his journey, protected by the affection of warmhearted Vitalis, he learns many things about life: true friendship he strikes up with Mattia, a fellow traveler and a young and talented violinist; bravery which enables him to face the harsh realities of the world; sadness when he loses his animal companions and, and most of all, faithfulness towards the old man who always supports him. However, despite adverse circumstances, he never loses his optimism and hope. This is rewarded when he finally meets his real mother, Mrs. Milligan, a beautiful, elegant and wealthy lady, and starts a new life.

One day, his father, Jerome, reveals to Remi that he was actually found abandoned as a baby and is not his real son. Now, the hard and painful life the family is living leaves Jerome no choice but to sell Remi to old Vitalis, the leader of an ambulant troupe of entertainers. Frightened at first, Remi soon finds the old man very friendly, though quite strict, and the life of an entertainer, traveling together with Capi. Dolce, Zerbino, the three dogs and Joli Coeur, the monkey, remarkably interesting. All along his journey, protected by the affection of warmhearted Vitalis, he learns many things about life: true friendship he strikes up with Mattia, a fellow traveler and a young and talented violinist; bravery which enables him to face the harsh realities of the world; sadness when he loses his animal companions and, and most of all, faithfulness towards the old man who always supports him. However, despite adverse circumstances, he never loses his optimism and hope. This is rewarded when he finally meets his real mother, Mrs. Milligan, a beautiful, elegant and wealthy lady, and starts a new life.
