Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	WHAT COLOR IS YOUR DOG? is an educational/informational series especially geared to ages 13 -16. In this entertaining weekly half hour program, Joel Silverman,a nationally renown TV show host, animal trainer and author, demonstrates how to train dogs and cats with the help of his furry friends either in-home or on location. The visual instructions are an easy way to learn the art of training our fourlegged family companions. Also, each week other animal trainers will be highlighted in our Animal Actors segment, as they talk about their experiences with not only dogs and cats, but all types of animals including bugs and snakes. The audience will learn about the time and detail that goes into the specific training needed for film and television production. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.
