Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	HORSELAND is an animated series about five girls and two boys who live in spectacular countryside that houses a farm called Horseland. Each of these main characters has a special horse whose personality is similar to its owner's. Horseland and its unique approach of integrating the personality of the main characters and animals serve to reinforce prosocial themes. Horseland is also a "coming of age" series in which viewers experience and learn from the social interactions, hopes, dreams, and even fears of this group of culturally diverse adolescents. From this background, the experiences of sharing, caring, compromise, friendship, respect, and competition emerge to provide the young viewers with social and emotional guidelines for better understanding many of the life-lessons they need to learn as they grow and develop. This program aired on the station's main channel.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	KUTV Angel Tree Program - The KUTV 2 News Salvation Army Angel Tree Program is a statewide holiday promotion designed to help underprivileged children and seniors. Throughout the promotion, trees laden with "angels" were placed along the Wasatch Front from Logan to Spanish Fork. Each angel contained the wish list of a needy child or senior. Citizens "adopted" angels from the tree and provided gifts as indicated on their "adoption card" thus giving gifts recipients would not receive otherwise. The promotion was supported with an extensive on-air campaign which included production, internet inclusion, on-site collateral and staffing and news coverage. DOMESTIC VIOLENCE - October is domestic violence awareness month so we partnered up with the YMCA to hold a telethon in order to increase awareness on how a victim of domestic violence can get help for themselves as well as their children. The telethon's purpose was twofold: raise money for the womens and childrens shelter and secondly to field calls from those seeking help from harmful situations. The telethon was held from 6A-10:30P on October 22, 2011. We also aired a town hall meeting on October 22, 2011 from 5P-6P where prominent religious and law enforcement leaders discussed the importance of seeking help and refuge from damaging circumstances.
