Length of Program	28 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	6 years to 12 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The Gospel Bill Show was set in the fictional town of Dry Gulch, portrayed as being in the Old West. However, there were many anachronistic references to the present day, such as television and answering machine, which did not exist back when the show was supposed to be set. Dry Gulch was so named because the citizens voted it as a "dry" city (i.e., one which prohibited alcohol sales).

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Carlos Caterpillar is a fully rendered 3D animated cartoon series produced by Christian media company Vision Video, and designed for children aged four through ten. The series is about the adventures of Carlos Caterpillar and his friend Sluggy as they learn valuable life lessons about topics like honesty, responsibility, and contentment. They never seem to be able to avoid predicaments, but they always come out stronger for them. It features a strong multicultural Hispanic flavor, with each episode featuring hip latin music and Spanish and English bilingual language track. Twelve 25-minute long episodes have been created thus far. A website is also in place with downloadable activities, such as coloring pages and flash games, to tie into the lessons presented by the show. Any parent looking for a fun way to teach their child Christian morals or expose them to other languages and culture will find something to like about Carlos Caterpillar.
