Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Regarding license renewal expiration date, there is a renewal application pending for a new 8 year term for KNOE-TV. Also of note, on Saturday, September 28 the CBS network changed out their children's programming for a new season of new children's E/I programs. Station KNOE-TV has noted the changes in the above document. In addition to the 3.5 average hours of children's core programming aired during the 2nd quarter of 2013, both KNOE-TV & Monroe's CW aired and continue to air, numerous psa's each day aimed at children 16 years and younger regarding issues such as health and safety for kids, educational motivation and other topics for children including such issues as education, being good citizens, drug abuse prevention, etc.
