Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Horseland is an animated series about five girls and two boys who live in spectacular countryside that houses a farm called Horseland. Each of these main characters has a special horse whose personality is similar to its owner's. Horseland and its unique approach of integrating the personality of the main characters and animals serve to reinforce prosocial themes. Horseland is also a "coming of age" series in which viewers experience and learn from the social interactions, hopes, dreams, and even fears of this group of culturally diverse adolescents. From this background, the experiences of sharing, caring, compromise, friendship, respect, and competition emerge to provide the young viewers with social and emotional guidelines for better understanding many of the life-lessons they need to learn as they grow and develop. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Cubix: Robots for Everyone takes place in the year 2040 in Bubble Town where robots outnumber humans. Each member of the Botties has their own robot with a unique characteristic. Each member of the Botties faces life scenarios that commonly affect children today. In order to best develop the skills and values that will produce "society conscious" and productive future adults, fostering social and emotional competencies in our children is crucial. Social and emotional skills- such as confidence, courage, loyalty, teamwork, and problem solving-provide an important knowledge base upon which appropriate behaviors can be developed. Cubix provides just such a framework. The series tackles life scenarios that commonly affect children today.
