Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Based on the popular books by Joanna Cole and Bruce Degen, this television series combines fantasy with science education. Via her magical transforming school bus, Ms. Frizzle takes her curious and often doubting class "into" the natural and scientific worlds. Through their many science lessons, Arnold, Ralphie, Wanda, and the rest of the class travel to outer space, under the sea, and even go through Ralphie's digestive system. Lily Tomlin marvelously captures the energy and mystery of Ms. Frizzle as she was characterized in the Magic School Bus books. The Magic School Bus appeals to children of various ages, as the colorful animation and silly antics of Liz and the bus entertain preschoolers, whilst older children enjoy learning how things work from the inside out.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Shelldon" is an animated series about a school aged yoka shell mollusk, Shelldon, who lives with the adoptive family, the Clams, in an undersea community called Shell Land, which is populated by all sorts of sea species. Shelldon and his best friends, Connie (a cowry shell mollusk) and Herman (a hermit crab) face a specific challenge in every episode of the show. The problem may be managing a bully, improving their grades, learning how to be altruistic, or protecting their environment from natural and man-made disasters. In all cases they rely on Dr. Shell, the most venerated intellectual and elder in Shell Land who teaches them and gives them opportunities to harness their potential and solve the problem. Each episode provides a direct socio-emotional lesson and many episodes provide informational content relating to the sea life habitat of Shell Land and environmental conservation.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	It's magic in the city with Pearlie the park fairy! Pearlie is an animated comedy about a fashionable young urban fairy in charge of Jubilee Park, a park in the centre of a bustling big city. The series is based on the top-selling children's book series "Pearlie the Park Fairy" by legendary. More Australian comedian, author and radio personality Wendy Harmer. Aimed at kids aged 6-10 years, the series makes fun of fairy tale conventions while putting a contemporary and urban spin on the fairy genre. With plenty of witty dialogue, outrageous characters and gorgeous design, Pearlie will delight fans of the books but also attract a new audience to its imaginative world. In the show, Pearlie is put in charge of the park by Fairy Headquarters (HQ) after graduation from Fairy School. While doing her job, Pearlie must keep out of sight as the one rule for all magical creatures is they can't be seen by humans.
