Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	A 30 minute television series like you've never seen before. It's fun. . . It's colorful. . . It's magical. . . It's musical. . . It's educational. . . It teaches values and celebrates faith. . . And it does all that in three languages at once! Introducing Dr. Wonder's Workshop - the first Christian television series ever produced where everyone uses American Sign Language! This program has been designed from the ground up to be the most accessible children's educational TV series ever developed. Not only will the show be voiced in English and captioned in English and Spanish, but every line, every song, every story will also be signed. For the first time, the 1.2 million Deaf children in America will be able to enjoy the show just as much as their hearing friends and family. So will other special needs children who are taught to use sign language, like Down Syndrome kids, or Autistic children, or other kids who find speech difficult. If ever there was a program designed to be sure that no child is left behind, this is it. This program has everything you've come to expect in a high quality children's educational television show. Interesting stories with fun, colorful characters. Creative original music. Language development. And instruction on the importance of developing positive life values such as honesty, integrity, and responsibility. But it also includes another dimension not found in most educational television. Dr. Wonder's Workshop also address issues of faith. Every program will include a Bible Story and an object lesson to show the children that God is just as relevant today as He ever was! The show will never be "preachy," but in tender loving ways Dr Wonder and his friends will unapologetically show the children that God knows them, He loves them, and they are precious to Him.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	If rocks from Bible times could talk, would they keep silent about the amazing events they witnessed? No way! That's why every God Rock has something important to say! The God Rocks! cartoon characters and universe are based on Luke 19:40: "If the people fall silent, the stones will cry out." Fun rock characters, including main character Chip Livingstone, live in the imaginary town of Rocky Ridge, where they live to sing and praise God - just in case the people fall silent! God Rocks! episodes entertain as they teach children important Bible stories and scripture. Life lessons are drawn from Bible truth and presented in fun stories that children will want to watch again and again.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Friends and Heroes is the epic animated tale of two young people in the First Century - Macky and Portia - whose idealism and friendship leads them across the ancient world, from the fabled Egyptian port of Alexandria, to the besieged city of Jerusalem and finally, to the very heart of the Empire: Rome. As they fight for justice and even survival against the might of the Roman Empire, they become friends and then, in turn, heroes. Through Macky and Portia, Friends and Heroes brings the inspiring stories of the Old and New Testament to a new, worldwide generation of children in the Twenty-First Century, whatever their faith or background. Like our heroes, children will be empowered by what they see and hear, as they share the courage and compassion, the everyday dangers faced by Macky and his friends.

"Mary Rice Hopkins & Puppets with a Heart" is one of those amazing treasures that you happen to stumble upon when you aren't even looking! Mary, the hostess, is easy to watch and listen to and is a talented musician as well. The puppet characters each have a removable heart that contains an object that is used as a visual aid for that particular part of the episode.

Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	4 years to 10 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	If rocks from Bible times could talk, would they keep silent about the amazing events they witnessed? No way! That's why every God Rock has something important to say! The God Rocks! cartoon characters and universe are based on Luke 19:40: "If the people fall silent, the stones will cry out." Fun rock characters, including main character Chip Livingstone, live in the imaginary town of Rocky Ridge, where they live to sing and praise God - just in case the people fall silent! God Rocks! episodes entertain as they teach children important Bible stories and scripture. Life lessons are drawn from Bible truth and presented in fun stories that children will want to watch again and again.

Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	SATURDAY @ 9:30 AM
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	6 years to 10 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Friends and Heroes is the epic animated tale of two young people in the First Century - Macky and Portia - whose idealism and friendship leads them across the ancient world, from the fabled Egyptian port of Alexandria, to the besieged city of Jerusalem and finally, to the very heart of the Empire: Rome. As they fight for justice and even survival against the might of the Roman Empire, they become friends and then, in turn, heroes. Through Macky and Portia, Friends and Heroes brings the inspiring stories of the Old and New Testament to a new, worldwide generation of children in the Twenty-First Century, whatever their faith or background. Like our heroes, children will be empowered by what they see and hear, as they share the courage and compassion, the everyday dangers faced by Macky and his friends.
