Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This half-hour weekly series is designed and produced to educate children aged 13-16 about the rescue, rehabilitation and, in many instances, release back into the wild of ocean wildlife. Sea Rescue offers educational and entertaining television by demonstrating the welfare and medical benefits that rescue and rehabilitation programs provide animals. This program seeks to educate viewers that there's a reciprocal benefit to sea animal rescue: rescued animals provide valuable insight into their biology and ecology and the information obtained adds to the pool of knowledge necessary to conserve threatened and endangered species. Each week, Sea Rescue seeks to leave its audience inspired by the real-life stories of the featured animals and rescuers and with a fuller understanding of the rich array of sea life with which we share our planet. * The regularly scheduled August 25, 2012 episode was preempted for live network coverage of the Little League World Series: International Championship. * The regularly scheduled September 8, 2012 and September 15, 2012 episodes were preempted for live network coverage of college football.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	In this weekly half-hour series developed and produced to educate and inform viewers ages 13-16, our hosts scan the country finding those who 'pay it forward' to promote health and wellness. The remarkable people that viewers meet are referred to as 'agents of change,' special individuals who are making big changes in people's lives, one small step at a time. Everyday Health is a series that uniquely raises awareness to help fight obesity, raise self-esteem, establish physical fitness habits and prevent negative health choices. An inspirational program about people who confront challenges by taking control, Everyday Health, through captivating storytelling, reports on amazing teens and other selfless Americans who are 'paying it forward' with good will and new ideas that will inspire other teens to take action. * The regularly scheduled August 4, 2012 episode was preempted for live network coverage of the American LeMans Mid-Ohio Car Challenge race. * The regularly scheduled August 11, 2012 episode was preempted for live network coverage of the NASCAR Nationwide Series at Watkins Glen race. * The regularly scheduled August 25, 2012 episode was preempted for live network coverage of the Little League World Series: International Championship. * The regularly scheduled September 8, 2012 and September 15, 2012 episodes were preempted for live network coverage of college football.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Young, enthusiastic and passionate about food, Claire Thomas is the 22-year-old host who opens viewers' eyes to how everyday life can inspire culinary creations in Food for Thought with Claire Thomas. Each weekly-half hour episode, produced for ages 13-16, informs and educates teens about the power of food as a tool for exploring new places, meeting new people and learning about different cultures. Claire serves as a role model for 13- to 16-year- old viewers by sharing stories in the kitchen that demonstrate her passion for her family, life, and healthy living. Creative inspiration can come from any place at any time - sometimes from family, sometimes from friends, sometimes even from bloggers seeking her help. No matter how exotic or local the location, she's always in search of new tastes and places to explore. Based on her unique perspective gathered throughout each episode, Claire will teach the audience how to prepare the "inspired" dish while promoting a healthy attitude towards food and life. * The regularly scheduled August 4, 2012 episode was preempted for live network coverage of the American LeMans Mid-Ohio Car Challenge race. * The regularly scheduled August 11, 2012 episode was preempted for live network coverage of the NASCAR Nationwide Series at Watkins Glen race. * The regularly scheduled August 25, 2012 episode was preempted for live network coverage of the Little League World Series: International Championship. * The regularly scheduled September 8, 2012 and September 15, 2012 episodes were preempted for live network coverage of college football.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	We air on average 18 to 25 PSA's per week in various dayparts on our 13.1,13.2 and 13.3 stations specifically beneficial to children. We currently have 15 different PSA campaigns representing children's interests, such as The Partnership for a Drug-Free America and Big Brothers/Big Sisters of America. We also have given and continue to offer tours of our studios to various student groups and scout troops. During those tours the children get to meet our on-air personalities and even get to appear on camera if they are here for our 11am news (and time permitting). Finally, our anchors and reporters are very involved with the community, speaking to students at schools and supporting various charities.
