Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	WHAT COLOR IS YOUR DOG? is an educational/informational series especially geared to ages 13 - 16. In this entertaining weekly half hour program, Joel Silverman, the well-known Hollywood animal trainer and author, demonstrates how to train dogs and cats with the help of his furry friends either in-home or on location. The visual instructions are an easy way to learn the art of training our four-legged family companions for this age group. Also, each week other animal trainers will talk about their experiences with dogs and cats - especially the specific training needed for a film, television program or commercial. We call this segment "Animal Actors." In the "Lessons with Luke" & "Lessons with Jax" segments, kids and puppies will team up together in this portion of the show. The kids will aid Joel in teaching a German Shepherd puppy (Lessons with Jax) or a Havanese puppy (Lessons with Luke) a new behavior each week. Our "Dog Training" segment dedicated to helping the young pet owner, in their home, to overcome their most troubling issue with their pet. Mr. Silverman demonstrates exactly what is required to eliminate the problem. This is helpful for any household who has a dog and wants to improve obedience. The skills learned in each half hour is not only to improve training skills but will teach young people patience, kindness, responsibility, determination and understanding - all needed in life, as well.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Zoo Diaries is an intense look at life behind the scenes at the Toronto Zoo. In particular, the series focuses on the zoo as a modern-day Ark, where animals are increasingly protected from the threat of extinction. The series also focuses on how to care for the animals in the zoo. As one of the world's biggest zoos, it has expanded its longstanding role as an exhibitor to devote more of its resources to protecting endangered species and their habitats. Each episode of Zoo Diaries focuses on the relationship between the animals and their keepers, allowing viewers to experience what it's like to bond with some of the world's most exotic creatures.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	On January 31, 2014 at 10:00 p.m., the network satellite feed went down because, without advance warning to the station, the network changed the satellite from which its shows could be received. After considerable difficulty in determining the source of the problem and re-orienting the receiving dish, the network satellite signal was acquired, and service was restored. The signal strength varied for the remainder of the month, however, which affected the programming broadcast.
