Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The Pajanimals are four preschool aged puppets who live together in a house with their off-screen parents. Each night at bedtime the Pajanimals go through the rituals of getting ready for bed such as brushing their teeth and once tucked into bed, one of the characters brings up a problem, concern or issue. The characters then embark on an imaginary adventure to resolve whatever came up, such as shyness, making a new friend or dealing with a bully. The adventure takes place in several nighttime dream locales where special friends help the Pajanimals work through the socio-emotional problem of the day. Specific approaches to managing the problem are demonstrated and practiced during the adventure and the Pajanimals return home confident and ready to face the issue. Viewers learn and laugh as the hosts cook up age-appropriate recipes and go on fun food adventures. With a group of young hosts who are culinary explorers, viewers will delve into the culture, history, science, and art behind the food. Each episode explores a new food theme, beginning with the simple phrase, "Foods that.." and rounding off with the hosts creating and customizing theme-inspired recipes that kids and parents will want to make together. Taste Buds communicates a positive message about healthy eating, kitchen safety, and environmental responsibility. (THIS PROGRAM WILL AIR ON THE SECONDARY DIGITAL STREAM.)
