Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Designed to promote preschool children's appreciation and understanding of animal life and to foster their recognition of ways in which animal and human experiences are similar and different. For ages 2-6, the series has four educational and informational goals: (1) to foster understanding of animal customs and behaviors, (2) to encourage reflection on similarities and differences between their own lives and the animals' lives, (3) to introduce preschool children to an array of different animals in the kingdom and enrich their ability to describe and communicate about them and (4) to motivate preschool children to appreciate the wonder and beauty of animals and animal life. In each episode, children will be immersed in a topic that will be the basis of a compelling story with a problem and resolution. Sample topics include: grooming habits, communication, caring for the young, eating habits, shelter, etc. Children will leave the episode with a simple and clear understanding of how this topic can play out in the animal world. they will be exposed to a variety of situations/ customs that will invite them to consider how this topic plays out in their own lives and what it means to them, e.g., what does shelter mean to me? How do I deal with cold weather? How do I communicate? etc.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Toot and Puddle is a story of exploration, both home and afar; it's a story about being yourself and being a good friend. For ages 2-7, the series key educational and informational goals are: (1) to encourage exploration and adventure, exciting kids about the world (2) to teach children about other cultures, including geography, music and history and (3) to provide age-appropriate problem solving behavior for children to model how to be a good friend, how to be yourself and how to celebrate differences. Two friends Toot and Puddle, live together in Woodcock Pocket. Toots loves to go see the world, Puddle prefers to stay at home. Each episode has one of the friends learning about life--whether its through Toot's eyes with an international view or through Puddles experiences back at home with their friends. Children learn about geography, conversational foreign language terms and cultural customs and traditions across the globe.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	A global adventure series for kids by kids, hosted by very real brother and sister duos. Through journal entries, crayon-drawn travel logs, on-location kid chatter, and voice narration the hosts explore a world of playground-inspired adventures as they celebrate familiar childhood themes and experiences in some truly unfamiliar locations across the globe. For ages 4-8, the series has several educational and informational goals: (1) to teach basic geography and historical context of well-known world sights (2) to develop appreciation for and encourage reflection on similarities and differences between cultures (3) to reinforce the notion that we are all part of one big world, no matter how far away we are and (4) to inspire a sense of world exploration and adventure. The kid hosts bring viewers along on their unscripted adventures that embrace our cultural similarities and delight in our differences. In each episode our hosts visit a manmade or natural wonder, have an adventure involving animals, and learn about a new culture by visiting with local kids from different countries around the world.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The main objective of the 104 live action and 2D digital segments is to show curious young viewers how everyday objects they encounter are designed and made. The series was filmed on location in Europe and North America in factories, workshops, and food plants. Each segment opens with an item to be investigated, followed by the two hosts, "Gear" and "Wiz," taking off on a voyage of discovery to understand the working =s of the item and reveal the secrets behind how it is made. For ages 4-7, the series key educational and informational goals are to: (1) educate children about the workings of everyday objects and how they are made and (2) to introduce children to the many fascinating objects around them and spark curiosity and the desire to learn more about those objects. The Characters: GEARS: is one of our hosts, a quirky animated mechanical fellow who looks like he is made from bits of spare parts found on the factory floor where he lives. WIZ: our other host is GEARS' super smart, levitating pal.
