Teen Kids News is a weekly news program that provides information and news to kids in a manner that is educational and appealing. Whether the featured stories or events are of national, international or even world-wide importance, each segment is carefully designed to appeal to the viewers at their own level. The program covers current topics that young viewers can relate to such as safety tips for new drivers; importance of visiting potential colleges or universities; the dangers that cliques may cause; healthy teen relationships; voluntary drug test programs and internet predators. Other segments are geared towards more historical facts and hard-news like the Brooklyn Bridge; the US flag; Europe transportation then and now; Closed Captioning; FDR Memorial and Make-A-Wish Foundation. This program stimulates young viewers curiosity, develops their learning and cognitive, listening and thinking skills.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Word Travels is an educational series which teaches geography, history, and culture. While traveling to exotic locations and writing about enlightening experiences may sound like an adventurous occupation, the life of a travel writer is not always as glamorous as it seems. Filmed in 36 countries across six continents, each half hour episode reveals the real story of professional travel journalism as the hosts share their experiences with young viewers. This series will also demonstrate how to write stories about these destinations and what information is relevant to a good story-telling.
