Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	A young boy named Jimmy has in his possession a magic flute named Freddie that can talk and play tunes on its own. One day he gets on a magic talking boat that promises to take him on an adventure. The boat happens to belong to a wicked witch named Witchiepoo, who uses the boat to kidnap Jimmy and take him to her home base on Living island, where she hopes to steal Freddie for her own selfish needs. Fortunately Jimmy is rescued by the island's mayor, a six foot dragon named H.R. Pufnstuf. After Jimmy is rescued by Pufnstuf and his two deputies, Kling and Klang, his adventures begin as well as his attempts to get back home. A kids' show unlike any other, H.R. Pufnstuf is set in the far out, puppet populated fantasy world of Living Island. Wildly imaginative and exploding with colorful sets and characters, its the story of young Jimmy, his talking flute Freddy, Mayor (and dragon) H.R. Pufnstuf and their constant struggles against the far reaching sorcery of Witchiepoo.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The Marshall family set out for a camping trip aboard their humble raft, but a chance encounter with a 1,000 foot waterfall plunged them into an alternate universe. Another imaginative Sid and Mary Krofft production, Land of the Lost put the family in a jungle world of no definite place and time, where they tried to keep one step ahead of dinosaurs and Sleestacks, and tried to make their way home. It is a terrific blend of sic-fi, fantasy and live action adventure.
