Digital Core
Programming

Question	Response
State the average number of hours of Core Programming per week broadcast by the station on its main program stream
State the average number of hours per week of free over-the-air digital video programming broadcast by the station on other than its main program stream
State the average number of hours per week of Core Programming broadcast by the station on other than its main program stream. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671:
Does the Licensee provide information identifying each Core Program aired on its station, including an indication of the target child audience, to publishers of program guides as required by 47 C.F.R. Section 73.673?
Does the Licensee certify that at least 50% of the Core Programming counted toward meeting the additional programming guideline (applied to free video programming aired on other than the main Yes No program stream) did not consist of program episodes that had already aired within the previous seven days either on the station's main program stream or on another of the station's free digital program streams?

Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	2 years to 7 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The Bible Alphabets children's programs are children's stories which take letters of the alphabet and relate them to biblical stories. As an example, 'A for Adam', 'E for Eve', 'B for Bible means book' and then the story explains the significance of the historical lesson to the child. The stories relate to children, in an easy to understand manner, historical lessons from the bible to assist in the teachings of history, morals and ethics. Lessons include learning how to treat adults and other children in a friendly fashion and live in a positive manner. Though beneficial to all children under 12, the targeted age range is 2 to 7. The producer is Star Family Ministries.
