Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Animal trainer Brandon McMillan operates a training facility known as the Lucky Dog Ranch, where his mission is to rescue hard-to-love and untrained dogs and find them homes. The show focuses on exercising responsibility and on developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Life lessons are an integral part of the overarching theme of rescuing these animals from death and providing a second chance for life. Following McMillan's investigations into how to retrain these animals to make them welcome members in the homes of families is both educational and inspirational - encouraging this demographic to become sensitive to our own and others' behavior and teaching how we as individuals can make a difference. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	13 years to 16 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Chronicling the adventures of Dr. Chris Brown, DR. CHRIS PET VET allows viewers unique insight into the life of one of the world's busiest vets and the animals that he treats. For those animals that require specialist services, Dr. Chris calls on his good friend and colleague Dr. Lisa Chimes, who works at a small animal specialist hospital. The show usually consists of three segments, following the doctor as he treats various animals that are in trouble and offering the viewer opportunities to understand the challenges a veterinarian daily faces. The series focuses on how the doctor investigates the individual problem and tries to develop solutions that on the surface would seem confounding to the viewer. As such the show not only offers a view into careers in and responsibility for taking care of pets, but also into problem solving strategies and behaviors. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Each week, host Evette Rios, recently a field correspondent and roving reporter for "The Chew," helps American families modify and update a high-calorie family recipe. First, two chefs face off in a head-to-head competition to give the recipes a nutritious low-calorie twist. After making each rehabbed recipe in its own kitchen, the family chooses its new favorite. This recipe makeover challenge teaches viewers about the nutritional value of different foods, promotes the use of healthy, wholesome ingredients, and demonstrates that healthy food choices can have positive effects on viewers' quality of life. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules. The preemption that was not rescheduled occurred because of a sports overrun and there was no opportunity to alert the public or reschedule the show.

Program Title	ANIMAL RESCUE
Origination	Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Saturday/8:30-9 AM
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time:	7
Number of Preemptions	6
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	10 years to 16 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	ANIMAL RESCUE showcases spectacular rescues of all types of animals and focuses on the work of dedicated individuals who treat the various creatures of the Animal Kingdom. The program includes safety tips and real life in-the-field experiences of professional and ordinary people taking care of, treating and helping various animals. Animal Rescue delivers the kind of information and pro-social values that are of inestimable importance in shaping the growth and character of young people. All stories are authentic and contain actual video of rescues. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children and has educating and informing children as a significant purpose. We do not count this as core children's programming, however, because certain times of the year this time period is prone to more preemptions that we are unable to schedule than we think is appropriate for children's core programming.
Does the program have educating and informing children ages 16 and under as a significant purpose?	Yes
Does the Licensee identify the program by displaying throughout the program the symbol E/I?	Yes

Does the Licensee provide information regarding the program, including an indication of the target child audience, to publishers of program guides consistent with 47 C.F.R. Section 73.673?	No

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	We hosted four station tours during this quarter. Two separate tours were conducted on Wednesday, February 11, 2015. One tour was for 26 high school students from Houston High School of Houston, Alaska. The second tour that day was for eight Cub Scouts (3rd Graders). Another tour was conducted on Friday, March 6, 2015 for 17 high school students from various schools in Anchorage, as part of the UAA Educational Talent Search. And finally, Ellie Coggins from Bethel High School, Bethel, Alaska, was given a tour on Monday, March 30, 2015.
