Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Noodle and Doodle is an instructional series that features creating art projects and cooking projects around a specific theme. The show is hosted by Sean, who drives around in a doubledecker bus fully equipped with art supplies, and a kitchen, all ready for any assignment. The projects encourage parent engagement and often feature families working together to make something for display in the child's home. Sean is accompanied by Doggity, an every-faithful Beagle dog, who transforms into an animated character during interstitial trips to a parallel universe and kitchen full of prank playing animated characters. While the show will be enjoyed by preschoolers, the projects are very practical and engaging to implement for children ages 5-8. The art projects typically feature lessons on recycling materials for re-use in making art and always demonstrate that creativity can transform something intended for one purpose into something useful to achieve a completely different goal.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	LAZY TOWN promotes fitness and healthful habits for children of preschool and primary grades. It takes place in an imaginary setting, Lazy Town, and most episodes relate children's eating and fitness habits to problem solving in their "real world." The lead character, Stephanie, guides the audience through the story. She and her best friends, a group of "human" puppets reside in Lazy Town, where her uncle is the Mayor Milford Meanswell. The underground spy and influencer who defines the ethos of Lazy Town is Robbie Rotten, and he determined to ruin the health and fitness practices of Stephanie and her friends. When the kids get into difficulties with Robbie Rotten, it is Sportacus, gymnast/athlete who comes to the rescue from his home in a spaceship that hovers over earth, prepared to answer to any call for help. The ever-present theme of Lazy Town is to eat "sports candy" which consists of fruits and vegetables, get sufficient sleep, and go outside and engage in a wide range of physical activities, from playing games, holding athletic competitions, to building forts and play structures.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	To A.J. Malloy, knowledge is power. To satisfy his curiosity, 15-year-old A.J. reaches into his fantasy world of time travel by entering his Time Machine, KYROS. With his eccentric crew of Ollie, Izzy, Bit, Maria, Pulse, and 3D, they come face-to-face with the most influential people, places, and events in world history. The ride is fast, furious and funny. The message is always entertaining and educational, with moral lessons to be learned. Each video is approximately 45 minutes, and features two subjects that motivate, inspire, and provide role models. These are truly programs that kids can grow on!

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	In the course of preparing the renewal application for Station KVEA, the licensee reviewed all of the Forms 398 (Children's Television Programming Reports) filed by the Station during the preceding license term (2006-2014) and discovered certain errors and discrepancies in the reports. The report for 1st Quarter 2013 was timely filed (Confirmation No. 139998), but is being resubmitted to correct and/or supply information for Items 8(a), 8(b), 10 and 15. The Station refiled the report to supply the corrected or missing information on August 25, 2014.
